

Strategically located on the Western Gulf of Mexico, the Port of Corpus Christi features a 47-ft deep channel, dredging to 54-ft, three Class I Railroads, two major highways, low-cost electricity and land for industrial growth. From imports, exports, manufacturing, distribution or tiered service, we're equipped to handle projects of any size—making us the premier gateway for iron and steel markets in the U.S. and Mexico.

Interested in working together? Let's talk.

Contact BusinessDevelopment@pocca.com to get started.

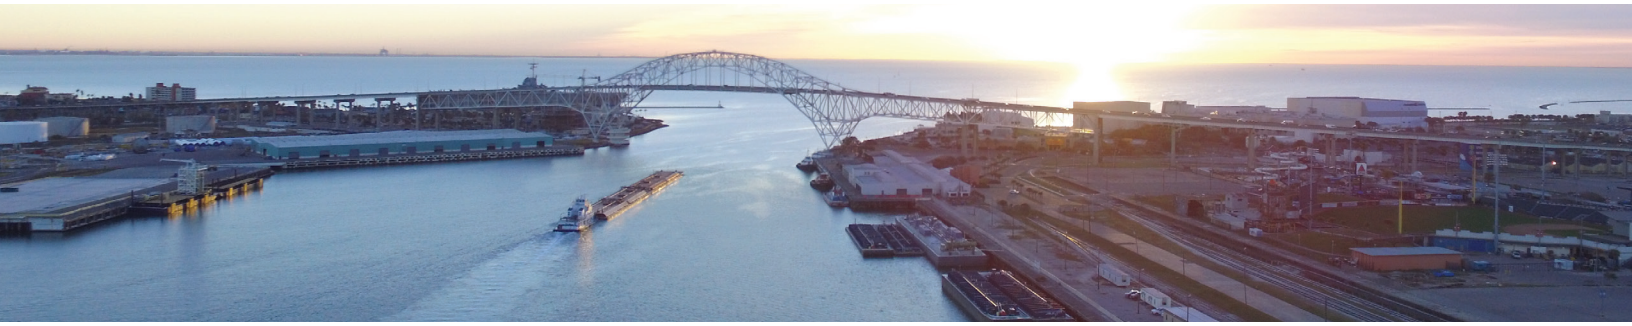

STEEL MANUFACTURERS

PORTCORPUS CHRISTI®

To learn more about our capabilities, visit portofcc.com

WHO WE ARE

- Largest U.S. Port in Total Revenue Tonnage
- More than 165M tons of cargo each year
- $200 billion in economic impact for the U.S.
- $28 billion in economic impact for Texas
- 98,000 Port-related jobs in local Coastal Bend region

LEADERS IN LOGISTICS

- 47-foot deep Ship Channel (dredging to 54 ft)
- Rincon Industrial Park with over 110 acres of laydown and rail service
- 60 Miles of Railroad Tracks (UP, KCS, BNSF)
- New Liebherr 550 LPS Crane at Bulk Dock 1
- New General Cargo Docks, Terminals and Laydown Yards
- Easy access to U.S. Highway system via I-37 and I-69
- Directly connected to intracoastal waterway (M-69)

